While we can't bring you live coverage, we will have Guild participants writing to our blog, posting photos to FLICKR, and we hope having some video from the conference uploaded.

Here's what you do to JOIN THE DISCUSSION.

BLOG - We have set up an NLG IC Delegation and Peacemaking Blog so that you can share in the international activities of IC members. I hope to share some of my experiences in Japan and Korea before IADL where I am meeting with peace activists and lawyers around Article 9 and then on peace in Korea (including with members of the South Korean Truth and Reconciliation Commission who is investigating massacres by US and ROK soldiers from the Korean War.

FLICKR - Our Flickr page is like an interactive photo album where you can invite others to the page, post delegation photos, leave comments and do a slide show. Descriptions by the photos can be added at anytime turning it into a whole educational powerpoint for anyone in the world to watch from anywhere. You can also have others use the photos for non-profit ventures. We will post photos from Hanoi during the conference and you can see a slide show of the Historic first NLG Delegation to North Korea from 2003. Others are working on posting their pictures.
